

Miss Joyce Whitehead

Miss Whitehead was awarded her Diploma from Dartford in 1937, after a highly successful College career which culminated in her becoming Senior Student. She was an international standard swimmer and diver and represented her country in hockey.

It was the world of hockey that benefitted most from her talent and wisdom. After an early career in teaching she made the transition to hockey, journalism, eventually becoming the Editor of The Hockey Field and Hockey Correspondent of The Times; she was also an England Hockey Selector for many years. Miss Whitehead was a former Treasurer of the B. O. U. and an enthusiast for Dartford with all its standards. She was regarded with great affection and her integrity and her unselfishness will be remembered by all who knew her.
